Bixbie (U. S. Marine Corps), Paymaster Fyffe, Dr. Frank Cooke, Lieut. H. L. Irwin, Lieut. Rice, of the battleship North Carolina; Capt. R. C. Marshall, U. S. N., commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, and Mrs. Marshall; Capt. Parker, U. S. N., captain of the navy yard, and Mrs. Parker; Capt. Alfred Reynolds, U. S. N., of the receiving ship Franklin, and Lieut.-Com. Evans, U. S. N., of the scout cruiser Salem.

Headed by Capt. Pedro Vde Mello Pinna, the officers of the Brazilian dreadnought stood in the receiving line, which, besides them, included Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Miss Katherine Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry St. George Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Baldwin, Mrs. Phillip Alexander Bruce. Assisting in receiving were Miss Virginia Garrison, Miss Virginia Cooke, Miss Mary Galt, Miss Mary Payne, Miss Belle Heath, Miss Anne Dornin and Miss Louise Taylor.

Mrs. Talbot Walke, Mrs. R. D. Walwright, and Mrs. Emily Hardy presided at the fruit punch bowl.

Block Day.

An interesting event in the Lenten season will be "Block Day," held under the direction of the board of managers of the Day Nursery and Free Kindergarten. A number of prominent society women will leave an envelope at every house on every block in the city to-morrow and collect them again on Friday. Members of the board and some of those who will help collect the envelopes are Mrs. Charles P. Walford, Mrs. Frank McGuire, Mrs. H. W. Bassett, Mrs. Robert Blankenship, Mrs. Stewart Bryan, Mrs. St. George Bryan, Mrs. Barton Wise, Mrs. Harry Hazard, Mrs. John Harrison, Mrs. James Caskie, Mrs. Samuel Wallace, Mrs. A. C. Becker, Mrs. R. L. Simpson, Mrs. L. E. Biggs, Mrs. Emmett Dickinson, Mrs. John B. Swartwout, Mrs. Bertram Chesterman, Mrs. F. D. Eppes, Mrs. J. L. Epps, Mrs. Robert Lecky, Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, Mrs. A. L. Holladay, Miss Lucy Nolting, Miss Juliet Lee, Miss Evelyn Gordon and other members of the Girls' Club.

The Day Nursery is a charming little house where the lovely flowers and happy games are sometimes the only bright spots in the little children's gray lives of loneliness.

Of Interest Here.

Chestertown, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, will attract a party of hunters from the Green Spring Valley Hunt Club on March 17. About twenty of the most enthusiastic followers of the hounds will leave a week from to-morrow for Kent county. They will hunt all day Friday and return to Baltimore late Saturday night.

As there is no fox hunting club at Chestertown, the folks from the Valley will take their own mounts and hounds with them and will go prepared for an exciting day's chase.

At this season Kent is an excellent country for cross-country hunting, and the members of the Green Spring Valley Club have found such excellent sport there in the past that they are making this journey to Chestertown an annual custom.

The Baltimoreans will probably be joined at Chestertown by several Philadelphians and the two parties will unite in Friday's hunt.

Visiting in Fredericksburg.

Miss Willard Josephine Wright was a recent guest of Miss Marie Brown on South Third Street.

Miss Wright is in the home of her sister, Mrs. Thomas S. Shepherd, in Fredericksburg.

Meetings This Week.

St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will meet on Monday afternoon, March 14, at half-after 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Frank L. Johnson, 1504 Park Avenue. Business of importance is to be transacted, and members are asked to be present.

The regular meeting of the Commonwealth Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Thomas, 204 West Main Street, on Tuesday morning at noon. A full attendance is desired.

Reception for Mrs. Griffin.

Mrs. Oliver A. Parker gave one of the most handsomely arranged receptions of the season, Wednesday afternoon, at her home, 1000 North Charles Street, Baltimore. The guests were asked to meet Mrs. William H. Griffin, who before her recent marriage was Mrs. Kimball, of Philadelphia.

The hours were from 4 to 6 o'clock, and during that time several hundred persons were present in the society called. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and greens. In the drawing room Golden Gate roses and American Beauty roses were used against a background of palms and smilax. Annunciation lilies and American Beauty roses were artistically arranged in the dining room, and the rooms were lighted with candelabra shaded in corresponding colors.

Assisting Mrs. Parker in receiving the guests were Mrs. Arthur C. Needles, of Roanoke; Mrs. William D. Ball, of New York; Mrs. Henry Clay McComas, Mrs. William A. Dixon, Mrs. Oliver Parker McComas, Mrs. Ernest Robins, Mrs. William A. Marburg, Misses Amelia, Anita and Katherine Hack, Miss Adele Daly, Miss Mabel Buckler and Miss Carrie McComas.

Following the reception there was a supper for the receiving party.

Mr. and Mrs. Page at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. William Phelps Eno were hosts at dinner Thursday evening. Their guests were the Swedish Minister and Mme. de Lagerantz, the Naval Attache of the Austro-Hungarian Embassy and Baroness Prouchen, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Butler, Dr. and Mrs. Tremont-Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Mr. and Mrs. Henson Jennings, Mrs. Stanley Matthews, Mrs. Charles B. Wood, of New York, the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eno; Rear-Admiral O'Neill and Judge Magoon.

Woody—Summer.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Loftin Sumner to Samuel Bowden Woody will take place to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock in the home of the bride, 11 North Twenty-ninth Street, the Rev. G. F. Green, pastor of St. James Methodist Church, officiating. Miss Mary Johnson, of Thonotosaugo, N. J., will be the groom's best man. Little Miss Ernestine Lambeth and Lucy Blount will hold the ribbons forming the aisle through which the bridal party will pass.

After a wedding tour North, Mr. and Mrs. Woody will make their home in this city.

Play at Westminster School.

The pupils of Westminster School presented "The Merchant of Venice" in the school parlors on Friday night.

Miss Marie Leahy, head of the elocution department, coached the girls. Miss Wheeler, of the English department, played the role of Shylock. The cast was as follows:

Duke of Venice, Virginia Lee Miller; Don Alvi, Antonio, Sarah Cole Taylor; Morganton, N. C.; Bassanio, Kato Hobson Wilkins, South Boston; Gratiano, Alice Creath Angel, Richmond; Lorenzo, Esther Louise Kellogg, Ginter Park; Salarino, Margaret Grace Nottingham; Cape Charles; Salanio, Christine von N. Rosenegk, Richmond; Salorio, Edith Bratton, Hot Springs, Shilock, Charlotte Kellogg Wheeler, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Tubal, Helen McLean Downtain, Charlestown, W. Va.; Launcelot Gobbo, Helen M. Downtain; Old Gobbo, Marguerite Eleanor Ward, Tazewell; Bassanio, Mary Cole, Richmond; Portia, Helen Leah Whitlock, Richmond; Nerissa, Natalie Friend McFadden, Richmond; Jessica, Mary Tatum Friend, Chester.

Interesting Announcement.

An engagement of much Virginia interest just announced is that of Miss Louise Dulin Goldsborough, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Brice Worthington Goldsborough, of Cambridge, Md., to Burr Powell Harrison, son of the late Powell Harrison and Mrs. Harrison, of Leesburg, Va.

Miss Goldsborough's father is president of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland and chief of staff of the Maryland Hospital, at Cambridge. Through him she is descended from Robert Goldsborough, member of the First Continental Congress and first United States Senator from the Eastern Shore of Maryland. On the maternal side she is a lineal descendant of Governor Henry, of Maryland.

Mr. Harrison's family is an equally distinguished one in the historical annals of the Old Dominion from the earliest times. His more remote ancestor, Burr Harrison, was a member of the first Virginia House of Burgesses, while his grandfather, the late Burr Harrison, and his father were among the leading men of their day in their State. For the past two years Mr. Harrison has been engaged under Colonel Craighill upon engineering work in connection with the improvement of the Baltimore harbor and other deeper waterways in Maryland. The wedding will take place April 21, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Goldsborough, in Cambridge.

Vesper Service.

Miss Constance MacCorkle, the general secretary, will speak at the vesper services at the Young Women's Christian Association, 709 East Franklin Street, at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. Miss Patty Isaacs will sing. The women of this city are most cordially invited.

In and Out of Town.

Mrs. Isaac Read and her daughter, Miss Susie Read, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending a month at the Chestertown in this city.

Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, has taken a cottage at Virginia Beach for the summer.

Miss Minnie Wroten, of Fredericksburg, was among the out-of-town guests at the Paschal-Word wedding here last Thursday.

Miss Lora Crump is the guest of Miss Phoebe Hunter at her home in Montclair, Pa., for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Warrington Wise will return to the city April 1, after spending some time in Florida.

Mrs. Charles M. Donnelly and Miss Helen Winston have returned to their home in Louisa county, after a visit of a few days to friends here.

George C. Jefferson, of this city, left yesterday, for a six-weeks' tour of Texas.

Nash Reid, of Richmond, is spending a few weeks in Norfolk.

Frederick Scott Campbell is the guest of William Garth for several days at the University of Virginia.

Mrs. Emma Tyler, of this city, is visiting her mother, Mrs. B. H. Trice, at her home in Louisa county.

Mrs. Beverly Pettit, of Fluvanna county, who has been spending some time in Richmond with her husband, Dr. Pettit, left Friday for her home.

Mrs. Stuart Michaux is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Theodore Hough, at the University of Virginia.

Lucien and Russell Carr, who have been spending a few days in Baltimore, have returned to the University of Virginia.

Druggists say that

GOWANS

King of External Preparations, will do all that is claimed for it. It is absolutely certain that if our claims were not well founded the popularity of the wonderful remedy would not increase in the astounding proportion that it does. From everywhere come most encouraging letters; sales are multiplying and while your money will be refunded cheerfully if our Preparation fails to do what we claim for it, it is a singular thing that instead of wanting their money back, patrons want more of the great External Preparation. Ask for it and buy TO-DAY. Have it in the home. Winter weather is on you, and you do not know what will happen to-night. Take no substitute; your druggist keeps it, and there is nothing made 'just as good.' Demand Gowan's—use Gowan's, and you will get results.

Three Sizes: $1.00, 50c, 25c.

Have recommended Gowan's Preparation for Sore Throat, Congested Lungs, Stiff necks, Sprains, and any Soreness or Inflammatory condition, and have been disappointed in results.

A Growing Business In a Growing City

Cannot serve its customers with one Bell Telephone, yet hundreds of subscribers think they are "saving" in this way. They are losing by "saving."

Your telephone facilities should be ahead of, not behind, the requirements of your business. While one customer is ordering on the telephone others may be trying to reach you, only to get the "Busy" report.

Consulting us does not obligate you in any manner, and we will be glad to show you what you require.
